

School of MOVES

Established in 2015 by professional performer and 'movement storyteller' DiANNA DAVID. Her vision was to have artists be role models for youth by sharing their stories in their own unique and entertaining way. The "Faculty of Freshness" bring new perspectives in a unique workshop-style performance. They focus on ways to live out your best Self by understanding how we communicate and perform in life. Each artist in the Faculty of Freshness are life-performers as professional actors, singers, teachers, public speakers, musicians and humanitarians.

School of MOVES presentation

This unique workshop-style performance captures students with the wonder of movement, while instilling a sense of connection with everyday issues. Through mind-bending dance moves and interactive storytelling, world-class teachers deliver entertaining life lessons on how mind-body awareness helps boost confidence, eases anxiety, and improves physical, mental and emotional health. Students and teachers will leave empowered with valuable, practical tools that they can use in their day-to-day life, developing body awareness, dealing with social pressures and being a better leader.

The presenters demonstrate how to appreciate the things that move around us and how to create a life you've always dreamed of.
