

Motivational Magic

Steve Harmer is a former principal and teacher who left the Calgary system 20 years ago to pursue his dream. He combines his skills as a professional educator with his skills as a professional performer, using magic, juggling, unicycles, storytelling and music to present inspiring programs to over 3000 schools in western Canada.

"Powerful! Captivating and fun! Solid educational tool! Very appropriate across grades K-7 and the kids responded." - Doug Jeffers, Boundary Elementary

"WOW! I love these presentations! They are the BEST presentations I have ever seen in our school! Using magic to captivate students' attention in order to present such important information is absolutely brilliant!" - T. Harris, Westminster School

Quick Facts

Presentation Themes: Build a Better World, Resilience, Bucket Filling, Character, 7 Habits

- Former principal and teacher skilled at connecting with students
- An educator first, performing magic is his tool to impact students
- Magic and juggling that amazes and engages students
- Audience participation, volunteers on stage, fun and laughter
- Magic used as a concrete teaching tool for abstract character messages

Presentation Options

Build a Better World - Steve uses his magic skills along with 10 Building Blocks to visually demonstrate to students how they can build a Better World Pyramid by starting small and working outward: Level 1 - Build Myself, Level 2 - Build Others, Level 3 - Build This Place, Level 4 - Build The World).

7 Habits - These 7 Habits can help guide students to success in every area of their lives: 1. Be Proactive, 2. Begin with the End in Mind, 3. Put First things First, 4. Think Win – Win, 5. Seek First to Understand, 6. Synergize, 7. Sharpen the Saw.

Brilliant & Resilient! - We all must learn to face the ups and downs of life. And here is the good news: Trouble can be a great teacher, and often it is the struggle that makes us strong. This assembly presents the 7 C's that will help empower students with RESILIENCY. (Based on Dr Ken Ginsburg's work "Building Resiliency in Children and Teens").

Be a Bucket Filler - Inspired by the popular 'How Full is Your Bucket' material by Tom Rath and Donald Clifton that is used by many schools these days.
