

Paul Isaak

A captivating, one-man, theatrical variety show, Paul Isaak has 25 years of stage experience performing all across North America. He combines skillful juggling, quick wit, and audience participation into a hilarious, on-stage spectacle sure to delight crowds of all shapes and sizes. As a father of three, Paul is constantly surrounded by moments of laughter and joy and strives to bring more mirth to a world that often overlooks the joy in everyday living.

"Paul is extremely entertaining and quickly established a rapport with the audience, captivating and sustaining the interest of all students for over an hour. In his workshops, teachers were very pleased with Paul's ability to work with and relate to all ages of students. Our students came away having more confidence to attempt to take on the many challenges that come their way." - Phil Irwin, Blackie School
