Theatre Groups, Circus Performers, Cultural Educators, & Magicians who entertain and inspire your students while addressing topics such as Language & Literacy, Bullying, Character Building, Canadian Culture, Physical Literacy, Creativity, Pursuing your Dreams, Self-Esteem, Leadership, Bucket Filling, and more.

Our performers take a lot of pride in delivering the experience that schools want for their students. Here are some examples of what past schools had to say.

"The Cultural Wheel workshops were such a great experience for our school! Students have been able to connect with each other in a way that day-to-day teaching of concepts could not do. They've learned so much about who they are as individuals & as a community." - Rachelle Cyr, Edmonton Public school board

"HeARTbeat Theatre's various characters kept the show entertaining and engaging for students. The story was funny and easy to follow for students, yet got them thinking about how they can make the world a better place for themselves and for others." - Victoria Daniel, Brander Gardens School

"Hula Hoop Circus' presentation was polished and entertaining for all of our students in grades K – 9. I would recommend this performance to any school!" - Terry Fast, La Glace School

"I love Motivational Magic! Using magic to captivate students' attention in order to present such important information is absolutely brilliant!" - T. Harris, Westminster School

"10/10! The kids loved him! Paul immediately engaged the students with his banter and showmanship and we loved the audience participation. Great balance between entertaining & providing message." - Cindy Kotelko, Two Hills School

"Three Hat Circus was excellent! The message was good and this was one of the best shows we had for appealing to all ages. A great mix of visual, comedy, and 'oh my, how did they do that' moments. Great value." - Sally McIntosh, Lynnwood Elem
